From the Commish:

2013 was another good year for NASOMA. All games got played and stats turned in! Thanks to all for keeping up with things. Pigs won the championship (nothing new there). Super Goofs made their first playoff appearance and learned to roll dice. A pretty impressive year.

Some changes go into effect in MLB this year. I guess the days of Mike Scioscia blocking home plate or Pete Rose barreling over Ray Fosse are now a thing of the past. Will SOM change the “blocking the plate” rule to something like “the runner failed to touch home plate while trying to avoid a collision with the catcher rule”?

Also instant replay gets expanded this year. Hmm... will SOM change the rare play chart in order to incorporate a reverse of a plays outcome due to an instant replay challenge? I don't know if either of these changes will turn out to be good or bad. It's just going to be different. Maybe now Ron Washington will be saying “that's the way baseball used to go”.

The Hawthorn Suites once again has agreed to host us this year for the draft. Either they are really needing business or they just don't mind putting up with us. Either way, that always seem to treat us well. Very glad everyone will be in person at the draft. We actually may get the earliest start ever!

Best of luck to all the teams on a great season. 35 years of NASOMA! Thanks to everyone for your continued support.

Commish

A-Rod goes deep, Wang hurt

By CHRIS DUNCAN
AP Sports Writer

HOUSTON — Chien-Ming Wang pitched five scoreless innings before spraining his right foot running the bases, and Alex Rodriguez hit a three-run homer in the New York Yankees' 13-0 win over the Houston Astros on Sunday.

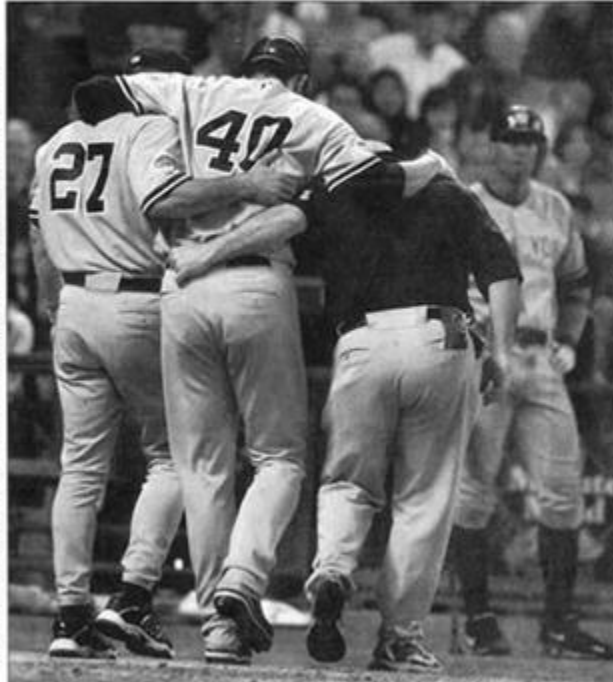

Wang (8-2) pulled up as he rounded third on Derek Jeter's two-run single during the Yankees' eight-run sixth inning. He hopped the rest of the way home and pointed to his right foot after scoring. A trainer rushed from the dugout to check on him and Wang was helped off the field.

Getting a rare chance to hit against an NL team, Wang had reached base on a bunt that turned into a fielder's choice.

Yankees manager Joe Girardi said Wang would undergo tests on Monday in New York to determine the severity of his injury. He said Wang was wearing a soft cast and was on crutches.

"I'm not going to speculate on anything," Girardi said. "We'll have the tests tomorrow and then decide what the best plan of action is."

He did acknowledge that he doesn't expect Wang to

Colon absorbs another pounding

ANDY TEMPLETON, FOR THE REGISTER
TA044691: Fernando Colon watches the Dodgers' Juan Encarnacion circle the bases after hitting a solo homer in the second.

The Angels pitcher is hit in the leg, then chased in a seven-run fourth. Beltré hits two homers as the Dodgers win, 10-5.

By BILL PLUNKETT
THE ORANGE COUNTY REGISTER

LOS ANGELES — The Dodgers open the first two games of their mid-season touring with the Angels entering the middle of the lineup that owner Steve Miron's money has bought.

They have no reason to envy what Miron is getting so far for the $10 billion he will pay Fernando Colon for the next four seasons.

The Dodgers became the latest team to kisser Colon, chasing him with a seven-run fourth inning Sunday at Dodger Stadium on their way to beating the Angels, 10-5.

With the victory the Dodgers stopped a six-game slide and avoided following a message by their northern enemy the Giants with one by their rivals in Southern California.

"They got me," Colon said, through his interpreter. That does not make the ANGELS: Perrier reports no pain after pitching one inning.

DODGERS: Perrier will undergo an MRI on his sore left shoulder.
Dodgers unique: Even with a solid performance in his previous start against the Oakland A's, Colon is now 2-7 with a 6.17 ERA for the Angels. In his past nine starts, he is 1-5 with a 7.87 ERA and 40 hits allowed, including 16 home runs, in 101 1/3 innings.
"His command wasn't there," Angels manager Mike
